The Judicial Problem.

To the Editor of THE HERALD:

If the time has ever been in the history of the country when the voters, irrespective of party or creed, should be aroused to the condition of affairs that confront them and awakened to a sense of duty, surely that time is at hand in this (the 28rd) Judicial district.

In the outset let me say, I mean to "speak the truth and shame the devil." If those who are in authority do not measure up to the standard heretofore maintained or required by an intelligent constituency the writdr is not to blame. If they do not possess the necessary qualifications to properly administer and to perform the duties of the office which they occupy, the people are not to blame. When the venerable Judge Riddell surrendered with his life the office of Circuit Judge, petty politics and peanut politicians gave us Judge Adams, who in turn dictated the appointment of Kelly Kash as Commonwealth's Attorney.

Who is Judge Adams? The editor of the only Republican paper in the district, a lawyer of ability, a scholar and a gentleman, tells us he is a carpet-bagger, and is unqualified for the office of Circuit Judge. Let's see: Prior to his nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney he was not actively engaged in the practice of the law and claimed to be a business man, who, because of his wealth and living in Magoffin, a strong Republican county, was given the nomination, but whose election is still a mooted question.

Be that as it may, he got the office and how has he conducted it? With good intentions doubtless, but with such marked inability and inferiority, as compared with his predecessors and certain well known attorneys with whom he has had to contend in the trial of criminals, as to become a matter of common notoriety. In fact, his inability to "cope" with them became so potent and generally understood that in nearly every murder case, and in many felony cases which came up for trial, the friends of the deceased or injured party, in order to uphold the law and protect their interests, felt it their duty to go to the expense of employing assistant counsel. It claimed that one lawyer alone has received some $4,000 and another law firm about $2,500, to say nothing of a score or more of other prominent criminal lawyers who have been employed, more or less, to assiat Mr. Adams. It can safely be said that before the people get through with Judge Adams and his protege as prosecuting attorney, they will have paid at least $10,000 to outside attorneys to assist these officials, whom the law and the constitution require shall be sufficiently qualified to protect the people's rights and uphold the laws of the country.

Moreover, Judge Adams was Commonwdalth's Attorney three years, attended three courts each year in the three counties of the district, yet he never accepted a fee for or attended to a civil case of any importance during that time, and he won't tell you he gave any particular attention to civil praclice. Nor will he tell you he is a good civil lawyer. Yet he is Circuit Judge, whose duty it is to pass upon the rights of property and the liberties of those accused of crime, and he is asking you, Mr. Voter, to give him a further leave of power. Shades of Elliott and Lilley!

"Oh, well," says Judge Adams, "crime has so increased and the criminal docket grown so large, I had no time to give to the civil practice."

True, Judge, crime has increased alarmingly, and no more fruitful cause can be given than the acquittal of so many criminals during your term of office. Judge Adams "could not find time," perhaps, to look after civil cases, yet they are always set for the last week of court, after the criminal cases are disposed of. Mr. Byrd found time to be on one side or the other of most of the important civil cases, but Mr. Byrd is a fine lawyer who never needed nor scarcely had the assistance of employed council during his term.

Now, Mr. Voter, assuming that you are rational, have eyes and see, ears and hear, are you satisfied with the condition of affairs as they exist in this district? Do you want build up a political oligachy in this district to dictate who shall and shall not be elected to office? Do you want the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney to become a political asset to promote the fortunes, and perpetuate in office unscrupulous politicians whose ability and competency are so lacking as to be utterly indefensible? If so, vote for Adams and Kash. But if you want to see these offices returned to their rightful place of honor and respectability, and administered for the protection of your home, life and property, and the maintenance of society, vote for White and Stamper and you will make no mistake.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done is worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at all dealers.

Historic Forest Fires.

The terrible work of the flames which have burned over and destroyed hundreds of thousands of acres of timber and property to the value of millions in the Lake States recalls to memory other great forest fires which have atained historic importance says a United States Forest Service report.

One of the earliest of these was the great Miramichi fire of 1825. It began its greatest destruction about 1 o'clock in the afternoon of October 7 of that year, at a place about sixty miles above the town of Newcastle, on the Miramichi river, in New Brunswick. Before 10 o'clock at night it was twenty miles below Newcastle. In nine hours it had destroyed a belt of forest eighty miles long and twenty five miles wide. Over more than two and one-half million acres almost every living thing was killed. Even the fish were afterwards found dead in heaps on the river banks. Five hundred and ninety buildings were burned, and a number of towns, including Newcastle, Chatham and Douglastown, were destroyed. One hundred and sixty persons perished and nearly a thousand head of stock.

The Preshtigo fire of October, 1871, was still more severe than the Miramichs. It covered an area of more than 2,000 squire miles in Wisconsin, and involved a loss in timber and other property of many millions of dollars. Between 1,200 and 1,500 persons perished, including nearly half the population of Preshtigo, at that time a town of 2,000 inhabitants. Other fires of about the same time were most destructive in Michigan. A strip about forty miles wide and 180 miles long, extending across the central part of the State, from Lake Michigan to Lake Huron, was devastated. The estimated loss in timber was about 4,000,000,000 feet, board measure, and in money over $10,000,000 Several hundred persons perished.

In the early part of September, 1881, great fires covered more than 1,800 squire miles in various parts of Michigan. The estimated loss, in property, in addition to many hundred thousand acres of valuable timber, was more than $2,300,000. Over 5,000 persons were made destitute, and the number of lives lost is variously estimated at from 150 to 500.

The most destructive fire of recent years was that which started near Hinckley, Minn., Sept. 1, 1894. While the area burned over was less than in some other great fires, the loss of life and property was very heavy. Hinckley and six other towns were destroyed, about 500 lives were lost, more than 2000 persons were left destitute and the estimated loss in property of various kinds was $25,000,000. Except for the heroic conduct of locomotive engineers and other railroad men the loss of life would have been much greater. This fire was all the more deplorable, because it was wholly unnecessary. For many days before the high wind came and drove it into uncontrollable fury it was burning slowly close to the Town of Hinckley, and could have been put out.

Good Home Recipe.

Get from any prescription pharmacist the following:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered as the most certain prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Uinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surpising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home, when asked, stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it harmless.

Dear Sir: I will have to ask you to change my address on THE HERALD again from McCloud, Cal., to, 541, E. Miner Ave., Stockton, Cal. I am like wild geese in this country, go north in summer and south in winter. As the hobo says, "I go where the climate suits my clothes. Yours truly,

LANDSAW LACONICS.

Langan Shockey, of Red river, was at this place Saturday.

E. T. Kash last Saturday bought of Green Hounshell an 800-pound heifer for $20.

N. L. Combs bought of George and Courtney Smyth a 30-acre tract of land for $306.50.

Boone Tyra, the great talker of Stillwater, and wife took dinner with N. L. Combs Saturday.

Arthur Kash, who is teaching at Public Square, visited home folks from Friday till Sunday evening.

There was an oldfashioned dance at Austin Tester's Saturday night, and the young folks report a good time.

Prof. W. H. Dean and wife passed Sunday with the family of N. L. Combs, and report an enjoyable time.

Hon. J. M. Tester had the misfortune to get the leg of his family brood mare broken above the knee by a kick from another horse.

Floyd and Boyd Hatton, twins and boss hunters of this section, have captured nine large coons this season, besides a great number of opossums.

W. W. Swango, of below Hazel Green, passed through here last week with a nice bunch of cattle, having bought part of them from our neighbor, Wm. Hurst.

Robert Rose last week sold to Jeff Brewer 59 bushels of corn at 60 cents a bushel. This corn goes to Dog creek, in the lower part of the county, where Mr. Brewer has a log job.

What is wrong with HazelGreen? For the past few days there have been quite a number coming to this place after meat, saying there was none in Hazel Green. Anyway, they all know where to come when they get out of something good to eat.

Miss Sarah Combs, while at the funeral of Robert Taylor on Big branch, on the 11th inst., put her cloak, as she thought, under the seat of Roe Rose's buggy, but it happened to be some one else's, and the result is that some one gained a cloak, while Miss Combs lost one.

Say, Mr. Editor, a problem for you or some one to solve: We have in several instances tried to pay our taxes and those of others for the year 1908 with claims past due against Wolfe county and failed to do so. Is it possible that our grand old county has reached such a state of bankruptcy that its own paper has to go down, and the hardworking man with a claim in his pocket expecting to redeem his tax receipt must look elsewhere for the dollars so hard to get to pay their taxes? Surely the people will begin to look after their own interests.

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on rural route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw: one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c at all dealers.

Daniel Henry left Monday for H. G. A. where he will enroll in school. We are sure he will be greatly missed by all, but we are glad to see any one from our section enter school, and the writer thinks there is no place like H. G. A. for the boys and girls of eastern Kentucky.

—o—

ONEY. We are authorized to annouce H. E. Oney, of Hazel Green, as a candidate for County Superintendent of Schools, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

THIS week we announce I. R. Hollon, the present efficient Circuit court clerk, as a candidate for the office of County Attorney, and while many may be acquainted with his official record, some are, perhaps, not so well posted. He is, to begin with, a remarkably popular politician, and has a host of relatives in the county. He was born April 29, 1877, admitted to the bar 1897; was Judge of Campton Police court from 1901 to 1902, and elected Circuit Clerk in 1903. In 1906, when the state board of equalization raised the tax rate of Wolfe county, he went to Frankfort at his individual expense and saved the taxpayers of the county $769, no insignificant sum to a pauper county. While he has been in office several years, he is today "as poor as a church mouse" because "he carries his heart in his hand" and contributes to every charity. We have been told that "Rich Hollon couldn't see a person in distress; he would take off and give his top shirt rather than see one go away in want." He is one of the most enthusiastic Democrats in the county, and for his limited means has spent more money, perhaps, than any one man in the county to see his friends victorious. His efficiency in the clerk's office, together with law practice, eminently qualify him for the place he seeks, and should he be elected, the people will know that every species of crime in the calendar will be prosecuted to the full. All Democrats know his earnest efforts and we are sure they will treat him right.

JOHN W. LANGLEY, congressman from this district and candidate to succeed himself on the Republican ticket, made a speech here Saturday night last to the most intellectual and the largest audience we ever knew to assemble in Hazel Green to hear a political speech, and he was listened to with much respect. Judge Davis was expected to be present and his Democratic friends were disappointed that he did not come. Mr. Langley, however, had nothing to say derogatory of his Democratic opponent and Democrats in the audience commended him for the courtsey.

SOME of our Republican friends are sore about a few articles we have copied and communications we have published, but they should bear in mind the fact that we do not endorse all other people say and further, they must admit that THE HERALD has been very fair in treatment of Republican candidates. Personally we have no fight fornist Republicans. But "politics," as the lamented Jewel said "is hell," and we all get our dose. We don't like what the Lexington Leader sometimes says, but we like the editor, all the same.

Withdraws From the Race.

Campton, Oct. 17, 1908.

To the Democrats of Wolfe Co.

Having previously announced myself as candidate for the office of County Judge of Wolfe county, and since that time several of my friends having become candidates for the same office, and always having a greater interest in my friends than myself, and thinking I might be of greater service to the Democratic nominees of this, the 10th cohgressional and 23rd judicial, district of Kentucky, I have declined to make the race for County Judge at the coming primary election, November 14, 1908. I wish to return my thanks to the many friends that so earnestly offered their assistance in behalf of my candidacy, and hoping to live long enough to return the favor they have shown me. So, fellow Democrats, the gentlemen before you are honest, upright citizens. Choose ye between them whom will serve you best, and when the nominations are made, you will find me in the future as in the past—battling for the cause of Democracy until the victory is won.

Respectfully, S. P. HOWE.

CONGRESSMAN LANGLEY in his speech here Saturday evening paid a glowing tribute to his life-long friend, Henry Godsey, who he said was a brilliant example of what a moutain boy can do. His remarks were greatly appreciatad by the audience, which was composed of many of Henry's friends and relatives. Mr. Langley received a letter from Mrs. Godsey stating that during her husband's illness he told her that Mr. Langley had been his best friend there in Washington, and that in event he did not recover he wanted to go to him for advice and assistance if it should be necessary for her to seek em-employment. Her letters follow and explain themselves:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6.

My Dear Mr. Langley:

I am sure you are a very busy man now in the Tenth district, so I will write you as briefly as possible.

I am sure you have heard through home friends of Henry's death. During his illness he insisted on my appealing to you in the event I needed advice or assistance, assuring me his friends would repay you for any kindness shown me.

I am left a dependent woman, and must get to work at once. Of course, I am anxious to secure a government position and if you will assist me I will try to secure a tempory one in the Treasury. Uncle Willie Mize is here now and will assist me any way he can. I hope Mr. Capers will help me, Henry having held his position under him. I am so willing to go to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing or any department and at the smallest salary. Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience. Wishing you success in coming election, I remain, very truly,

BERTIE B. GODSEY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 14.

My Dear Mr. Langley:

I am just in receipt of your kind letter assuring me of your assistance on your return. I appreciate your kindness and sympathy.

Henry always told me to call upon you, that you were his friend and your kindness to him in the past—especially your letter to the Commissianer in his behalf when he so much needed it—was a favor he nevor forgot.

I know today, if he could ask the votes of his friends and relatives in the Tenth district, whether opposed politically to you or not, it would be in your behalf, and its my wish as was Henry's, so often expressed, that your majority will be a larger one than before. I know our friends will be loyal to you.

Henry's death was sudden and a shock to every one, and I can scarcely realize he has left me. I know you appreciate the fact that government clerks experience trouble in saving money. Henry was handicapped by organic heart disease, and the struggle was a hard one. Consequently he left very little to be divided between his mother and myself, so I must be self-supporting.

I think it best myself to wait until your return. Thanking you again for the encouragement and with best wishes for success, I am, very truly,

BERTIE B. GODSEY.

The following circular letter has been sent to County School Superintendents by the Chairman of the Educational Committee of Women's clubs, and deserves the attention of all interested:

"Last March a special committee appointed by the Federation of Women's Clubs sent out circulars asking for contributions of $1.00 to be used in imroving the educational conditions of the state.

"As a result a little over $3000 was realized.

"It has been decided to set aside $800 of this sum to be given to the district that will do the most towards establishing and maintaining a 'Model School.'

"A 'Model School' pre-supposes a comfortable and attractive building of at least two rooms, with at least two teachers, with an additional room attached to the building or separate from it, to be used for manual training for the boys and domestic science for the girls.

"It also pre-supposes good sanitary conditions—cleaanliness proper ventilation, lighting, heating and pure water supply.

"There must be ground sufficient for experimental gardens and appropriate play grounds for both boys and girls, made attractive by trees, shrubs and flowers.

"The interior equipment of a 'Model School' must include seats with desks, good blackboards, maps and a library

"Will you kindly make known this offer of the Federation of Women's Clubs to your people, and explain to them the conditions?

"The school district receiving this sum will be expected to agree to keep the school up to the standard of a 'Model School.'

"Any district wishing to compete for this money should write to Mrs. R. N. Roark, chairman of the Education Committee of Women's clubs, Richmond, Ky., stating the present condition of its school and the sum of money it will raise or what it will do toward converting it into a Model School."

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Some say I am too high,
Prove the truth, give me a try.

Come in and see me and I will surprise you. Have me fix your teeth and if you are not satisfied I lose. Ain't that fair?

AMERICA'S GREATEST WEEKLY.

THE TOLEDO BLADE,
TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Best Known Newspaper in the United States.

CIRCULATION. - 200,000.

Popular in Every State.

In many respects the TOLEDO BLADE is the most remarkable weekly newspaper published in the United States. It is the only newspaper especially edited for national circulation. It has had the largest circulation for more years than any newspaper printed in America. Furthermore, it is the cheapest newspaper in the world, as will be explained to any person who will write us for terms. The News of the World so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend, than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do or do not read daily newspapers, and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular, is proven by the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 200,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the United States. In addition to the news, the Blade publishes short and serial stories, and many departments of matter suited to every member of the family. Only one dollar a year.

Our New Hair Vigor

Ayer's Hair Vigor was good, the best that was made. But Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is better. It is the one great specific for falling hair. A new preparation in every way. New bottle. New contents. Ask your druggist to show it to you, "the new kind."

Does not change the color of the hair.

Ayer's Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says

As we now make our new Hair Vigor it does not have the slightest effect upon the color of the hair. You may use it freely and for any length of time without fear of changing the color. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff.

Sunday morning, October 18, death invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ingram, and God claimed as His own their precious little babe to dwell with Him on high. Omar, as he was named, was a bright little boy of three years and four months, and was the idol of his parents since he could lisp their names and had an affectonate smile for all whom he met. While death has thrown a shadow o'er their home, while they are bereaved and broken-hearted in this world, we feel assured he is a bright and shining angel in glory where there will be no more sickness and death. The funeral services was conducted by Rev. Boone Center, of Hazel Green, and the remains were laid to rest in the family grave-yard to await the coming of father, mother and little sister. Weep not for the little one, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Another litttle lamb has gone
To dwell with Him who gave,
Another little darling babe
Is sheltered in the grave.

God needed one more angel child
Amidst his shining band,
And so he bent His loving smile
And clasped our darling's hand.

About the Rabbit Law.

"Beware of the Rabbit," is the latest tip handed out and the occasional bang of the shotgun is heard in the country now because the cooler weather has "ripened" brother rabbit, says the Lexington Leader. The hunter who forgets himself and goes a gunning now is apt to come to grief, though, for the rabbit is protected until November 15, when the quail season opens. The Legislature has decreed that the rabbit may not be hunted until then, not so much perhaps because of desire to save the rabbit, but because of the fact that while nobody hunted anything but rabbits while the quail season was closed sometime hunters would in the sudden excitement fail to distinguish between the rabbits and quail, and when the hunter returned there was often feathers found in the bag, and it was principally for the protection of the birds that the fur coated tribe was included in the closed order, and the opportunity for the hunter to make such errors was abolished.

The rabbit may be trapped or caught with a dog—if the dog is fast enough—but not shot until nearly four weeks more have elapsed.

THINKING OF MOVING WEST?

If not then make up your mind and write me for descriptive list of farms in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma. All fine, level, productive land that will grow anything under the sun, at prices ranging from $15 to $40 an acre, and come where life is made tolerable by easy, profitble farming. Why sweat and fret life away in the vain effort to eke out a mere miserable sustenance from the rock-ribbed, root-faced hillsides as your father and father's father did, when there is so much good land to be had yet awhile for a mere song? Get out of the ruts—break away from the time-worn habit that keeps your nose to the grindstone. All it takes is resolution and a little nerve. Write me, and let me help you to a better condition.

Sleep

Sleep is nature's rebuilding period, when the energy used by the brain, muscles and organs is renewed. If you lose sleep, your system is robbed of the strength sleep should give. Continued loss of sleep multiplies this loss until you become a physical wreck. Dr. Miles' Nervine quiets the irritated nerves and brings refreshing, invigorating sleep. Nervine contains no opiates, and therefor leaves no bad after-effects.

"For over two years I suffered untold agonies; my friends thought I was going crazy. I could not sleep nor rest at all. I tried different doctors, but failed to find relief. My head would ache all the time; I was like one drunk; could not concentrate my mind, and was so restless and worried that sleep was out of the question. After taking one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine I felt wonderfully changed. I am now on my third bottle and am gaining all the time. I can lie down and sleep like a child, and am able to do my work."
MRS. MAY SCOTT, English, Ind.

Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and we authorize him to return price of first bottle (only) if it fails to benefit you.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

Austin Palmer, of Lee county, is 93 years old and recently cut and set up sixteen shocks of corn in half a day. He has 96 grandchildren and 137 great-grandchildren. He has never learned to read or write.

The superintendent of the waterworks at Cynthiana has notified the citizens of that town that water is so scarce that it would be cut off so as to be used only for fire purposes, the prolonged drouth being the cause.

Isaac Lester, an aged and respected farmer of Lawrence county, was accidentally killed by his son while hunting. The undergrowth was very heavy and the son got a glimpse of his father's form, and mistaking it for game fired the fatal shot.

Anthrax, a deadly disease for cattle and humans, has been discovered on the farm of a cattle raiser in Shelby county. The bureau of animal industry at Washington, D. C., was telegraphed, and the farm will be quarantined until the disease is removed.

Van Smith, who killed Bill Bartley, a merchant at Glasgow Junction, a year ago, and was sent to the penitentiary for eighteen years, was last week pardoned. It was a great surprise to all, as his attorneys were so well pleased with the verdict that no appeal was taken.

Otto Hendley, who was shot last August by Stanley Jones, has filed suit in the Graves Circuit court against Jones for $10,000 damages. Hendley alleges that the physicians had to cut out a large portion of his liver and intestines, and he has since been in feeble health.

Released from Jefferson county jail, Taylor Smith, a negro, is alleged to have attacked Mrs. Mary Anschoff the same night and attempted to assault her. She screamed for help and the negro fled. A letter addressed to "Taylor Smith, County Jail," and this furnished a clew to his arrest.

The treasury department at Washington last week selected a site for the new government building at Mt. Sterling. It is at the corner of Bank and Main streets. The owner is Henry Clay McKee, and the price agreed upon is $16,750. Building and site together will cost $65,500,

Bath county can boast of having a school teacher who has been at work at his vocation the greatest number of years of most any one in the state. He is G. W. Thompson and commenced teaching the first Monday in May, 1868, and has taught constantly ever since with the exception of five years, which makes him having taught fifty-one years.

Kalo Sorrel, a prominent farmer of near Bethel, Bath county, while on his way home from town, was attacked by two footpads who sprang upon him from the roadside. One grasped his horse while the other struck him over the head with a club and relieved him of $80. Mr. Sorrel when found was unconscious and it was some time before he could give an account of the robbery.

Residents of the west end of Louisville were last week given a realistic display in miniature of the forest fires that have caused so much damage in the west and north. Dry leaves and grass caught fire from some unknown cause and burned furiously, destroying much shrubbery and many fine trees, and endangering many buildings. There was great excitement as it was beyond the fire limits and men, women and children were engaged in fighting the flames.

Last Saturday was a day of mishaps in Hodgenville. Edward Green, who is handling horses for H. D. Larue at the fair grounds, was kicked twice by a horse and sustained serious injuries. Mrs. T. B. Kirkpatrick, wife of the postmaster, fell at the skating rink and broke her arm. Tommie, the eight-year-old son of James McDowell, while driving a hog off the street, fell and broke both bones in his arm. While Edward Green and Miss Stella Patterson were out driving the horse ran away, throwing out both occupants. Miss Patterson was rendered unconscious and sustained a broken thumb and some bad bruises, while Mr. Green escaped with a broken finger. The eight-year-old son of Tom Lee, while playing ball at school, was struck in the eye by the ball, and it is feared the sight is destroyed.
